

Frankfurt Summer School 2018

Cancellation Policy

To ensure the financial sustainability of the summer school we have introduced a cancellation policy.

Should you wish to cancel, please fill in the cancellation form and return it to summerschool@em.uni-frankfurt as soon as possible.

For all students except scholarship holders and students from Goethe-University:

For cancellations received by 31 May, 2018: 80% of the programme fee will be refunded.

For cancellations received between 1 June and 15 June: 70% of the programme fee will be refunded.

For cancellations received between 16 June and 6 July: 50% of the programme fee will be refunded.

For cancellations received after 6 July: no refund will be made except in case of force majeure (see below).

For scholarship holders:

Please note that the scholarship holders are subject to the refund deadlines.

For cancellations received by 31 May, 2018: scholarship holders will have to pay 20% of the programme fee.

For cancellations received between 1 June and 15 June: scholarship holders will have to pay 30% of the programme fee.

For cancellations received between 16 June and 6 July: scholarship holders will have to pay 50% of the programme fee.

For cancellations received after 6 July: scholarship holders will have to pay the programme fee, except in case of force majeure.

A refund (100% of the programme fee) for all registered students is possible only under the following circumstances:

- An unsuccessful visa application (embassy statement required)
- Serious medical reasons. Students must provide medical documentation along with their cancellation form.
*If you encounter any difficulties with your visa application and are not able to get your visa until 6 July, please contact us immediately.
